

Articulatory Patterns in Speakers of Luxembourgish

Dr. Judith Manzoni

Timeline: At least until the end of 2020

Using electromagnetic midsagittal articulography (EMMA), patterns of tongue, lip and jaw movements are examined in the realization of vowels and diphthongs by native speakers of Luxembourgish. Movement data are collected in Luxemburgish and German contexts.

Funding: Trier Center for Language and Communication